

Domestic Violence Advocacy Training

Jeanne Geiger Crisis Center's virtual training is a comprehensive series that develops the knowledge and skills necessary to assist victims and survivors of domestic violence. Each session builds off the last, and will include guest speakers, role playing and educational activities.

This series is ideal for social service providers, volunteers, health care professionals, law enforcement, faith leaders and all interested in working to end domestic violence.

Training will cover the following topics:

- History & Context of Domestic Violence
- What is Domestic Abuse and What are the Types?
  - The Cycle of Abuse
  - Understanding the Abuser
  - Barriers to Leaving
- Working with Marginalized & Underserved Populations
- Trauma Informed Responses to Domestic Violence
  - Impact of Violence on Children
  - Counseling Skills and Safety Planning
  - Risk Assessment
- Working with Survivors with Mental Health Issues
- Working with Survivors with Substance Use Issues
  - Police Response to Domestic Violence
  - Legal Issues
- Secondary Traumatic Stress, Boundaries & Self-Care

September 15 – October 15
Tuesdays and Thursdays

All Sessions 9am – 12:30pm

$300 flat fee
includes all 10 sessions
($360 with CEUs)

This is an interactive training series and requires video participation

---

To Register, please visit
jeannegeigercrisiscenter.org

Space is limited

For questions, contact
Heather Wiles at hwiles@jeannegeiger.org

