

Does your partner ever...

prevent you from seeing family and friends?

trick you into signing documents?

mislead family members about health conditions?

scream at you, threaten, ridicule or criticize you repeatedly?

blame you for problems in your relationship?

restrict access to money?

threaten to institutionalize you or put you in a nursing home?

repeatedly tell you that you are old and forgetful?

restrict access to items needed for daily living, such as medication, glasses, walker or wheelchair?
