

Virtual Training: Clinical Work with Survivors of Domestic Violence

Jeanne Geiger Crisis Center is a nationally-recognized domestic violence crisis center serving survivors in the greater Newburyport, Amesbury, and Lawrence communities. Our mission is to empower individuals and engage communities to end domestic violence. We provide empathetic and trauma-informed services using a strengths-based, survivor-led approach.

This training is designed for private practice clinicians who want to enhance skills in both crisis intervention and ongoing therapy with clients impacted by domestic violence.

Training will cover the following topics:

- Defining and Identifying Domestic Violence
- Dynamics of Abusive Relationships
- Barriers to Leaving
- Understanding People Who Perpetrate DV
- Working with Marginalized & Underserved Populations
- Clinical considerations for ongoing trauma work with child and adult survivors
- Assessing for Risk
- When and How to Refer to Domestic Violence Crisis Centers

Trainer:

Eli Adler-Roth, LICSW coordinates clinical services at the Center's Children's Safety Program. He has nearly a decade of clinical experience serving survivors of all ages and working with people who use violence.
